

A Slice of History Pie Baking Contest

Tuesday, November 13th, 2018 at 7pm

In Conjunction with The Montpelier Center's History Returns Program

Do you make the best pie in town? Dust off that recipe and show us what you can whip up! 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Places will be awarded ribbons and prizes, along with bragging rights! Join us for this fun-filled competition celebrating local recipes and history.

Hanover County's favorite son, Patrick Henry, aka Charles Wissinger award winning thespian from St. John's Church Foundation, will judge entries following his History Returns to The Montpelier Center program.

Pies will be eaten and enjoyed by all once prizes have been awarded!

Contest Rules:

- Entries will be accepted the day of the event by 6:00 pm
- All pies including crusts must be made from scratch
- Pies will be judged on taste, texture and appearance
- Must provide list of ingredients
- One entry per person
- All ages, men, women and children are welcome to participate
- Pies should not need to be heated or refrigerated
- Pies should be delivered in disposable pie tins
- 1st, 2nd, 3rd prize winners will be announced following the program

Entry Form

Baker's Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Name of Pie: _____

Recipe Origin/Fun Facts: _____

To enter, please complete this form. Submit to The Montpelier Center on Tuesday November 13th along with a list of ingredients used in your recipe (no measurements necessary) and your completed pie. If you have any questions, please contact The Montpelier Center Office at info@montpeliercenter.org or (804) 883-7378.